I. Open Forum

1. Harold Katzman – introduced himself as the 1975-76 ASI Science Senator, 1976-77 ASI Attorney General and 1978-79 ASI President and spoke about the history of ASI and that they were celebrating the 50th anniversary this year. He gave details of past dedications of rooms, athletic fields, etc. to individuals and noted that there was an oversight on the plaque for Scolinos Field as it does not include that it was given by ASI. He passed around a list of names of other individuals that could be considered for dedications during this special year. He noted that he had reached out to past leaders and was working with Alumni Affairs to access contact information. He added details about Dean Henry House as an individual to consider honoring. He also suggested that ASI could do a fundraiser/dedication opportunity with bricks that could be displayed out in front of the BSC.
