 - b. He gave the history on the organization that had over 23,000 members and was in their second year at Cal Poly Pomona and explained the activities and services that they organized on campus

- c. He gave the details for the 2014 ALPFA National Convention that would be held in Lake Buena Vista, Florida from August 2nd – 5th and also listed the benefits for the students that attended last year
- d. He reviewed the expense forecast to send eight members and their revenue that included their fundraising efforts

B. ASI Strategic Plan for 2014-19 (attachment)

1. Cora stated that GAS had an excellent response to the student-wide email that was sent out and she had Kim recap that the email included the link to the Ipad mini give away featured on the Campus Crop blog. Kim noted that after one night they had over 13,000 individual points of response which equaled approximately 4,000 students and by today it had grown to about 16,000 points of response and they would be gathering data until May 28th.
2. Cora stated that the handout that was distributed at the door as they entered was the result of the challenge by some of the senators at the last meeting to have a way to measure what they have accomplished as they work with the plan from 2014-19 and was the first attempt to change the language in the strategic goals and objectives based on the Executive Leadership Task Team meeting yesterday
3. She added that Christine had requested that a meeting of the Executive Task Team be called and so it was being scheduled for next week and a formal email would go out so that the senators could be engaged in looking at this section of the document
4. Cora added that the draft of the document had been emailed out to the four consultants for review and one had bowed out due to time conflicts
5. Christine reviewed the results of the meeting Doodle and the use of flyers that she placed in everyone's mailboxes for student participation at this event
