Cora M. Culla
ASI Executive Director's Report

1. SUBJECT: Welcome to New Campus Rec Team Members

DETAIL:

Please welcome two additions to our Campus Recreation team who have now come on board:

a. A'Naja Bass – Fitness Coordinator

A'Naja joins us following her position as Fitness Programs Coordinator for ASI at CSU East Bay. She holds a Masters of Science in Sport Administration from Georgia State University and a Bachelor of Science in Exercise Science from the same University. A'Naja brings experience in the development, management and evaluation of fitness programs, oversight of group fitness classes and instructional clinics as well facility operations

b. Michael Justin Moynihan – Adventure Education Coordinator

Justin comes to us from three former management positions with 7 years experience. He served as the Climbing Wall Coordinator and Lead Guide for the University of Pennsylvania's Outdoor Adventure Program and as the gardening Coordinator for the Netter Center for Community Partnership. He brings experience as a Climbing wall Instructor, Outdoor Guide and Consultant on indoor and outdoor climbing programs. Justin holds a Bachelor of arts in Guiding/Leadership/Writing and various certifications that are an asset for the BRIC.

Thank you to all who were involved with RecFest. We had a turnout of about 400 students who were excited about information on BRIC programs and job opportunities.

2. SUBJECT: IT Updates

DETAIL:

Following a Request for Proposal process, we have awarded the contract for the development of the Campus Rec website and the enhancement of the ASI website to Vrrb Interactive and the former will be completed by around June and the latter before the start of Fall 2014.

We have gotten approval on the Accessible Technology Initiative (ATI) Certification from the University on ADP Workforce Now will be submitting the Reserve Allocation Funding Request to the University for final approval. Once approved, we will proceed to discuss the contract with ADP.
