Cora M. Culla
ASI Executive Director's Report

1. SUBJECT: CSU Compliance Audit

DETAIL:

The staff is compiling the information requested in preparation for the arrival of the CSU auditors. We are also ensuring the our files are up to date and in order. The auditors are scheduled to arrive on March 25.

2. SUBJECT: Program Updates

DETAIL:

March 1st is First Friday! The activities start with the Tailgate at 4pm at the front entrance to Kellogg Gym where the ASI Student Leaders will have a table and host a mixer to tell students about what life is like being a student leader. There will be food for sale, some great games and activities, a DJ and more. The women's game starts at 5:30pm and that goes into the Men's game at 7:30pm. At 8:00pm you'll see some of our very own performing stars on stage in Ursa Major for CPP's Got Talent. Tickets are on sale for the event and at the door, proceeds will go toward the winner's charity of choice.

Mickey Madness is right around the corner on March 15th from 10:00pm to midnight. Student leaders will be needed to pass out the hot dogs again so please sign up for a time.

The Programs and Marketing Department will be assisting with logistics and details for this year's Greek Week and the Children's Center Auction.

3. SUBJECT: BRIC Updates

DETAIL:

Construction is continuing to progress. We are on schedule to complete the pool by June 17th in time for KHP to prepare for their summer Motor Development Clinic. You can see Pool Building 2 (Bronco Commons Restroom) peaking over the east edge of the construction fence. The Leadership Team, Campus Recreation and CREW Solutions are close to finalizing the Group II (furniture and equipment) list and budget. In March, Shelbi and Krista will be traveling to the NIRSA (National Intramural Recreational Sports Association) Conference next week and with Drew and Ross to the IHRSA (International Health and Racquet Sports Association) Conference where, in addition to networking and educational sessions, they will be meeting with various vendors to gather the latest developments in fitness/sports equipment and programming.

4. SUBJECT: Campus Recreation Updates

DETAIL:

We have 1428 active members. Current Fitness Programs are: The Walking/Jogging Group, which is a free program for all students, faculty, and staff (Monday and Wednesdays 12pm – 12:50 pm), the 2-day Biathlon, with a Men's and Women's division, had 7 participants that competed, the Pull up competition will take place on March 13th – 15th with Men's, Women's, and Assisted divisions. You can check out our workout of the week video on the Campus Recreation website. These videos will allow you to add some new exercises into your workouts and to understand the correct form.

For Intramural Sports we are currently finishing up week 5 of league play and will be in make-up week and then playoffs. Sport leagues that we are offering this quarter are basketball, volleyball, and Hantis. There were 15 males and females that participated in an Xbox Black Ops tournament in partnership with the Games Room, Etc. One of our Professional staff members along with two students will be traveling to the University of Arizona this weekend to attend the Regional Basketball Tournament. Ross Bennett, our Intramural Assistant, will be on the officials' committee and helping select the two top officials that will get a bid to the National Basketball Tournament. Our two officials will be competing for this bid along with 30 other officials from all over the nation.
