1	6.67%	analyze the opinions of others to create an diverse outcome
1	6.67%	Being a part of the cabinet and BEAT this year made me come out of my comfort zone on several occasions. There was a number of conflict restitution scenarios that I had to be a part of, which I did not have much experience of at this level. I learned to look for solution when problems arose instead of focusing on the problem itself too much.
1	6.67%	better and so awesome
1	6.67%	By being a leader both within ASI and on the CPP campus, I have learned valuable skills and experiences that have trained me for the working world. By keeping on top of my emails, events, and important meetings, my skills in time management have been honed. My ability to keep a detailed schedule of the week and the tasks that I need to accomplish while executing it all at the same time have been worked upon and are better than when I first started at CPP. Another skill that I have learned is professionalism and how to treat others in a business way. From this year, my leadership style has changed from a laid back one to a more direct and professional one.
1	6.67%	I am able to facilitiate conversation, enusre that everyone has euql opportunity and input, and can keep discussions on topic.
1	6.67%	I am definitely more confident in myself. I'm not as scared to approach faculty and staff anymore.
1	6.67%	I am now a more confident leader. Before BEAT, I've had tendencies of being a leader and more of a follower. And now, I feel more confident in being a leader. I love being a part of a team and being a part of an amazing dynamic that keeps you going throughout the day!
1	6.67%	I became more confident.
1	6.67%	I don't think it has necessarily "changed" but became more developed through practice. I was put in a position where more people came to me for answers and contribution of ideas or opinions. My leadership grew because I became more familiar with researching and talking to people regarding questions that I did not know. I also learned to predict questions, so that I can be able to do my research before they are asked.
1	6.67%	I have become more vocal about issues. I am still one to lead behind the scenes as opposed to being the motivational speaker type, but I am definitely moving forward.
1	6.67%	I have learned how a large organization works as well as how to run smaller organizations.
1	6.67%	I have learned that listening is more important than speaking.
1	6.67%	i have learned to talk less and listen more and also ask questions to clarify communication between others and myself.
1	6.67%	I have matured more and learned how a large organization functions and how I can best serve it/
1	6.67%	I taught me how to effectively make change on a campus as well as a community. I know how to network and express the voices that aren't heard.

1	6.67%	Build support is the key of a leader
1	6.67%	Don't be afraid to step outside of your comfort zone. You won't grow if you don't.
1	6.67%	Don't be afraid to take chances! Be open to opportunities because you don't know where it will take you. Honestly, BEAT has given me a wonderful opportunity and now, at the end of the year, I've made life long friends and gained valuable experiences that I can apply in social and professional settings!
1	6.67%	Don't be scared to put yourself into a leadership role. You will never be alone. Our staff will guide you to making the right decisions.
1	6.67%	Don't underestimate the power of determined and driven students.
1	6.67%	have a voice
1	6.67%	I could work with people. They don't have to like me and I don't have to like them. We are simple just here to work together.
1	6.67%	It's okay to say "no" to opportunities if you're stretched too thin. People understand and appreciate when you're attentive and 100% present for meetings rather than being a tired body attending a meeting for the sake of quorum.

1	6.67%	Make an effort to learn. You are a leader, and people expect you to be one. You have an infinite number of resources; if you don't know something, find out. Try your best to utilize your resources so that you can serve to the best of your ability.
1	6.67%	The greatest lesson that I have learned from this administration is to not be afraid to chase after your ideas. Be creative in how you can actively change the campus. There are a multitude of ways to improve our campus. Fight for your idea and work to make the best of your year.
1	6.67%	There is no such thing as "being too ambitious" !
1	6.67%	To make sure you speak up, don't follow others, ask questions and stand up for what is right and just for ASI
1	6.67%	To remember that they were chosen to be in this position for a reason. Do not be afraid to speak your mind, especially when something is going wrong or you are no longer enjoying your experience with ASI.
1	6.67%	You can never underestimate the power of dedicated and driven students

Q6. What training/information do you wish you would have received at the beginning of the year that would have helped you develop your leadership skills?
Count	Percent
15	100.00%
Count	Percent
1	6.67%	1. Roberts Rules (not individually watching a video) 2. Structure of ASI (not only personnel, but various senate subcommittees, departments, BUDGET) 3. Meeting with University Advisor & previous senator 4. More bonding time...talked about norming and storming, but students did not really have any time to bond as a team.
1	6.67%	budget
1	6.67%	diversity
1	6.67%	Don't be afraid to share your thoughts and opinions.
1	6.67%	Don't be afraid to voice your opinion.
1	6.67%	I wish I had gotten more information on budgets and the particulars on line items. Although I don't like the long informational sessions, hour long workshops will help. I also wish I knew about the different types of funding provided by university so that I could have given my clubs more chances to receive more funding.
1	6.67%	I wish I would have received training in how to use bylaws and know how to ensure that the council followed everything. As the year went on I become comfortable enough and worked closely with council members to stay on track, but at the beginning of the year I did not know that that was one of my main duties.
1	6.67%	I wish I would know more about the paperwork.
1	6.67%	I wish my academic council would have offered me a more in depth training. I was well-trained and prepared for ASI but adjusting and meeting with my council was rough at the start.
1	6.67%	I wish my duties and the duties of my advisors were made a lot more clear at the beginning. I feel that this created a lot of problems for me this year because I was not sure who was in charge of what.
1	6.67%	I'd say that there should be some training into ideas that the Senators can work on as their projects for the year. By helping the Senators brainstorm and cultivate ideas, there can be more change on our campus. Even bringing more awareness to the resources that they can utilize.
1	6.67%	In the BEAT retreat, I wish they would have given us a "How to program?" Kinda like a Event Planning 101. It's not as easy as people think it is. At the beginning of the year, it was overwhelming e-mailing vendors and talking to staff about events. I feel having this "intro course" in the beginning would definitely help!
1	6.67%	more info on budget in the beginning.
1	6.67%	Nothing I was good.
1	6.67%	Simulations of committee meetings, as well as tips on how to be a great communicator in the professional business realm.

1	6.67%	My greatest challenge had to be working with my advisors and one of my members. There was a point when I wanted to leave ASI and my position. I overcame it by making it clear that something was going wrong and that some changes needed to be implemented.
1	6.67%	My greatest challenge this year was talking to staff and vendors. I was never confident in my communication skills and throughout the year, I saw myself getting better!
1	6.67%	My greatest challenge was keeping up motivation even when it felt like it was for nothing. Sometimes ASI seemed to get in a cycle, but I overcame it by staying positive and remembering my purpose.
1	6.67%	My greatest challenge was time management. I was all over the school and needed to make sure that I kept a detailed list of what I needed to accomplish. By working hard and having a great schedule, I was able to survive this year and have completed one of my favorite years at CPP.
1	6.67%	take initiative and be accessible
1	6.67%	The greatest challenged that I faced this year is wanting to be everything. Being a senator I created conflict between myself and my council because I wanted to be hands on in the process. Although my council did not like the idea of me being so front, I did what I needed to do so that the job could get done. I really wished that my council had worked more and that I didn't need to step in as much to make sure it wasn't falling apart. I overcame it by realizing that there are people in the world that I will come across that are just like this and I will be able to work with them regardless the situation.
1	6.67%	Time management with my position (ASI and council duties), school, club leadership, work, and an internship. I reached out for help, and was able to delegate and ask others to step up where and when they can.

2014-15 ASI Student Leader Learning Outcomes Assessment Results

Q52. Are there any regrets you have as a result of being a student leader?
Count	Percent
1	33.33%		My biggest regret was that there were staff problems that tainted my experience in ASI. This had to be by far the worst year I have experience in ASI.
1	33.33%		Not spending more time reading through reports and documents more thoroughly. It is difficult to get through everything along with keeping up with schoolwork, but ASI gives a learning opportunity that no classroom can give and I wish I had taken more advantage of that.
1	33.33%		The only regret that I have of this year was one of my plans that I wanted to do was squashed by others. If I had been more intent and focused upon my goal, it could have been created and I could have seen it come to fruition.

1	25.00%		ASI helped me grow so much. I could barely talk in front of a small group and by the end of the year I was excited to be up in front of my entire council presenting. I learned practical knowledge about business and leadership that I am able to use the rest of my life. For example, my employer had a hard time explaining one of the new regulations on part-time sick hours and I had already knew what she was talking about. I got to make a difference as a student leader to the campus and I received skills in return. Thank you for the opportunity to serve students and to grow.
1	25.00%		Our budget training would have been better earlier in the year (with a review in Spring). 1. We did an ice breaker in Spring... 2. We practiced how to make a motion in Spring... 3. We developed meeting protocol in Spring... These are all items that student leaders should have already been familiar with. Also only a few student leaders attend the "mandatory" budget training because it is in Spring.
1	25.00%		please keep up the awesome work
1	25.00%		Take the needs of the student leaders seriously. At times the advisors do not take action and it leaves the student leaders feeling helpless.
