Bronco Advocacy in discussion upcoming civic engagement events as well as candidate forum with politicians that are affiliated with Cal Poly Pomona with potential dates for forum to be held. Discussed the event that took place October 30, 2023 regarding Domestic Violence with Senator Susan Rubio.

CSSA

- We get points for being civically active
- Events that actively engage students in civic engagement
- Partnered with CSUSB
- Points we can get
- Working on holiday cards with Michelle to get them out for the holidays
- Sen. Susan Rubio instagram posts for point
- The points where they took a picture counts
- Update spreadsheet

Candidate Forum

- February 9th 2024
- Primary Voting March 1-5 to vote in person
- We need more events
 - Coalition that works on civic engagement events
- If we invite a candidate we need to invite all to not show a bias
- A unique opportunity because this seat has been held for 12 years
- Goal is 2-3 more events of speakers (political figures) in February to kick off spring semester
- List and tally up a list of the points we have for civic and flag upcoming events and a list of events we have heard about. Engage with those who have connections to gov.
- Student input in meetings

Voter Registration

- Feb 5th ballots released, last day to register Feb 20th
- Work with BEAT and have a political candidate on campus for an event to motivate voter registration- identify who would it be and try to work with local legislature
- Research and student input on who the legislator would be
- Nov 2024 general elections
- CCP hosting a misinformation event Feb 1 focus on misinformation between candidates
- Creating a civic engagement module for transfer students- call to action for voting to go out to 700 students
- All these events tie back to CSSA
